EBE opened the meeting by recalling that this group transforms to a broader group on all issues. He asked that the discussions not be repeated but rather to see how to reduce differences on different points.

ON asked for clarification of a common understanding of the mandate.

EBE informed the sides that he clarified with the SG and the Leaders the following understanding: (everything "subject to"):

[Exact wording recorded in the notes from the 10am meeting, same day]

1. new security regime: the end of unilateral right of intervention and of the Treaty of Guarantee (ToG), but with appropriate implementation and verification instruments, including elements outside of Cyprus;
2. fast significant reduction of troops to the level of the Treaty of Alliance (ToA), which implies 650 troops, with the detailed modalities for purpose and mandate, SOFA, verification mechanism and timetable – without prejudice to the agreement on sunset clause vs review;
